CURRENT TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

A large number of our citizen attended the big barbecue at West Liberty last Friday.

Rev. Eugene P. Mickel will preach at the Presbyterian church in this place on next Tuesday night.

J. Morgan Easterling, of the Pension Department, Washington, was visiting his brother Tommie, of this office, last week.

Rev. John I. Rogers last week brought to this office a twig containing thirteen good-sized apples. It was taken from a tree in the orchard of Mrs. Nannie Kash.

The case of the Commonwealth against Louis Taulbee, pending in the Wolfe Circuit Court on a change of venue from Breathitt county, was continued on account of the absence of important Commonwealth witnesses.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction announces that the common school per capita for the next year will be $1.90. The census shows 549,595 white children of the school age, an increase of 10,637, and 107,144 colored children, an increase of 4,330.

"Who tied that Crape on the Door," and "Dem Good Ole Days," two popular pieces of music by Will S. Hays, have reached this office. The publishers are Rogers Tuley Co., Louisville, and the price only ten cents each. Send for them, if you wish to keep pace with the times.

A syrup made of a pound of white sugar to a pint of vinegar is said to be a sure cure for the severest case of flux in eight hours' time, and we give it our readers that they may give it a trial. It was recently tried at Lexington when flux were epidemic, and it proved an infallible remedy.

Those of our farmers who were fortunate enough to put out a patch of tobacco this season will strike it rich. Reports from all over the country indicate that the crop will not be over one third of an average, and as manufacturers have worked up their supply, the raw material now being raised will command good prices this next fall.

Rev. Mr. Ekhar of the M. E. Church South, requests us to state that a protracted meeting will commence in the M. E. Church at this place on July 25. Miss Molly Morrison, the lady evangelist, will be here, and invites the preachers of the district to come and help hold the fort. Bro. Ekhar closes his request thus, "May the blessings of God attend this meeting and this town."

Since the first Monday in March, last past, when Circuit Judge Henry C. Lilly started on his round there has been twenty-nine persons convicted of felony in this judicial district. Twenty-four of them were sentenced to the penitentiary, three appealed and two made their escape before sentence. This is the best record for punishing crime ever made by a circuit judge in Eastern Kentucky and Wolfe county is yet to hear from.

Geo. B. Harper, the gentlemanly Receiver and Superintendent of the Kentucky and South Atlantic railway, has placed us under obligations for a copy of the "Headlight," published at Cincinnati in the interest of railroads. In it we find an elegant picture of Eugene Zimmerman, the young railroad king. He is president of two of three railroad companies and vice-president of several others, among the former being the K. & S. A., from Rothwell to Mt. Sterling. Besides these, he is interested in many other enterprises.

A rumor comes to us that a woman and child were found dead in the woods, about six miles from Frenchburg, one day last week. A few nights before a woman, a child and a man stopped over night at Brack Bolen's. The child was nearly naked, and Mrs. Bolen gave it a dress. When found the bodies presented the appearance of having been dead two or three days, and were unrecognizable except by the dress upon the child which was identified by Mrs. Bolen. The supposition is that both were murdered by the man, and the authorities are hunting him.

Stock Sales Last Wednesday.

The sales at this place last Wednesday, considering the fact that many farmers were busy harvesting, some threshing grain, and others laying by corn, were well attended. Stock sold remarkably well, as will be seen by the subjoined list. One yoke of three year old steers brought $91.75, the estimated weight being 1800 pounds, which is a fraction over five cents per pound. The total sales amounted $791.15, and this, we reiterate, is a mighty good showing considering the attendant circumstances. Hazel Green is month by month becoming the most popular market in Eastern Kentucky, and farmers have found that they get good prices for their stock and save the annoyance of driving forty miles further. Not only is it of advantage to the farmer to sell here, but the buyer very frequently secures a sufficient supply to justify him in driving elsewhere, having a good bunch, is enabled to sell better than if he had only a few. THE HERALD predicted the success of these sales, and as spokesman has maintained that success and nursed it. Have the farmers and others thus benefitted been as true to us? Alas, No! While some of them have appreciated our work in their behalf by supporting us with their subscription, many others borrow and read the paper. Even its bitterest enemies love the feast its columns furnish, and satiate their appetites with its news nuggets. Every man in this section owes us his support, for in the past we have stood by them, we are doing so in the present, and in the future we shall not fail them. As before stated our opinion may not, in many instances accord with the views of others, but the mountain people are our people—we love them, one and all, above all others—and we should like them to reciprocate by deed that THE HERALD is their paper. No matter what your religious creed or political convictions, THE HERALD is your friend—it is for the mountain people against the field, in any emergency—and you should be its friend. Get your neighbor to take it. Convince him of his duty, and he will take it. We must pull together, and pull with a will until we plant this section and our people upon that plane where she is entitled to place. But, we started to report the stock sales, and here they are, furnished by "Phatty" Piratt, the accommodating auctioneer:

Cure for Rheumatism.

A correspondent of the English Mechanic says: Let all of "ours" know the following. My wife has suffered occasionally with rheumatism in her feet, with painful swelling, completely taking her off her feet for many days at a time. The following remedy was recommended recently and tried, and took away the agonizing pain in less than fifteen minutes, and she can now walk very fairly, and in a couple of days she will be able to button her boots, and walk without a stick or crutch.

One quart of milk, quite hot, into which stir one ounce of alum, this makes curd and whey. Bathe the part affected with the whey until too cold. In the meantime keep the curd hot, and after bathing, put them in a poultice, wrap in flannel, and—go to sleep (you can). Three applications should be a perfect cure, even in aggravated cases.

The Combs House, at Campton, an advertisement of which will be found in our paper, is one of the best hotels in Eastern Kentucky and is kept by one of the cleverest gentlemen. The good landlady, however, is the one who deserves the attention, for she it is who prepares the vittals and supervises the in-door management. The tables are supplied with the best, the rooms and beds are clean, and everything is in apple pie order. There are twenty-four rooms modernly furnished, and everything appertaining to a first-class establishment is there to be found except an elevator, and the proprietor will introduce that to the first man who misbehaves or fails to pay his bill. When you want the full worth of your money stop with S. S. Combs, at Campton.

Our friends far and near who have known us long and well, and especially those with whom we have been associated since we joined the Benedicts twelve years since. Yea, and our wife's relations, will be surprised and no doubt delighted to hear that our better-seventeen-twentieths and our self have been presented with twins. A pretty pair, and are so near alike that no one can distinguish a difference in their looks. However, dear friends, do not get excited. They are only twin cumbernubs, presented us by Mr. Joe Clark of this place, who will please accept thanks for same.

I have the exclusive sale in Wolfe and surrounding counties of the Eclipse Sewing Machine. It has no equal. Don't buy until you have seen it. You will find that it is the cheapest and best.

Proprietary Medicines.

A visit to Dr. Green's Laboratory at Woodbury, N. J., has considerably changed our views, and especially our prejudices in regard to what is generally known as "Standard Patent Medicines." Of course we are getting to that age in life when we are forced to conclude life itself is a humbug, and naturally distrust anything that has not withstood long and tried experiences. Being a physician I had the curiosity to know how such a sale of two medical preparations could be sustained for so many years. The perfect system upon which the business is conducted, and the pharmaceutical arrangement for the manufacture of the two recipes with which we were made acquainted, are sufficiently convincing to us that the AUGUST FLOWER for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints, and BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP for Throat and Lung Troubles were for the complaints they are recommended, most excellent remedies, and only regret that in much of our practice, medical ethics prevent us from prescribing them without making the formulas public. When we were shown the great quantity of voluntary letters having been forwarded Dr. Green from all parts of the country, and from all classes of people, lawyers, ministers and doctors, giving a description of their ailments, testimonials of their cures, etc. I feel like endorsing Dr. Green's suggestion that the Government accept such valuable formulas, and license them for general use by giving protection to the inventor same as patents generally.—Copied from N. Y. Druggists' Circular for October.
